This Open Forum’s expert panel includes:

- David Gallop, NRL CEO
- Graeme Innes, Race and Disability Discrimination Commissioner
- Dr Barry Judd, Post Doctoral Fellow, Centre for Australian Indigenous Studies, Monash University
- Deborah Healey, Senior Lecturer, UNSW, commercial and sports law expert
- Marcia Ella-Duncan, former Australian netballer.

This forum will seek to explore the nature of racism in sport, and what the various codes, in particular the NRL, are doing to address the problem. This follows the highly publicised media coverage of Timana Tahu’s courageous stance in walking out of the NSW State of Origin team as a protest against racist remarks made by a member of the coaching staff.

The forum will be facilitated by Indigenous Law Centre Director, Megan Davis.

The forum will be open to questions from the audience following discussion by the panel.
