TO CONTRIBUTE

The ILB welcomes articles from all sectors of the legal industry for any section of the magazine. In particular, Indigenous lawyers, paralegals and visual artists are encouraged to contribute their work for publication. Electronic submission is preferred.

ARTICLES

Language: To ensure accessibility to a broad readership, technical language and jargon must be simplified into plain English. Aboriginal English is an exception to this rule but where necessary, translations will be provided in addition to the original expression.

Style: Australian Guide to Legal Citation, www.law.unimelb.edu.au/mulr/aglc.htm

Word lengths (including footnotes): News and updates 100-1200; Community talk 600, 1200 or 1800; Feature articles 1800 or 2400; Casenotes 600, 1200 or 1800; Book reviews 600 or 1200.

Feature articles are subject to anonymous peer review.

ART

Images of visual artworks in any medium that are suitable for reproduction in colour or black and white may be submitted for publication. Images may be submitted as slides, photographic prints, transparencies or 300 dpi electronic scans of the work.
